RETRAIN WORKERS FOR HEAVY INDUSTRY

7,000-10,000 CHANGE OCCUPATION -- Budapest, Vilagossag, 28 Sep 50

The Ministry of Heavy Industry is conducting courses of instruction during the fall academic quarter for persons changing their occupation. Some 7,000 to 10,000 workers are taking a 6-month course to acquire new skills. As a result of the retraining program, there will be 25,000 trained workers at the end of the first year of the Five-Year Plan.

The ministry is also providing for the training of plant managers, production planners, inspectors, norm adjusters, and other production specialists. Full-time day schools have also been opened for training Stakhanovites for the mining, iron, metallurgical, electrical, and machine industries.

CONSTRUCTION WORKERS INCREASE -- Budapest, Szabad Nep, 28 Sep 50

In 1949, 90,000 workers were engaged in the construction industry. In 1950, the first year of the Five-Year Plan, the number of workers in the industry had grown to 170,000.

ADD 10 MINUTES TO WORK DAY -- Munich, Hungaria, 27 Oct 50

Hungarian workers are "enthusiastically" taking part in a "10-minute program," according to which the workers arrive for work 5 minutes before and finish working 5 minutes after regular working hours.

40 MILLION FORINTS EARMARKED FOR VILLAGE DWELLINGS -- Budapest, Friss Ujsag,
1 Oct 50

Five-Year Plan investments in Fejer County so far amount to 70 million forints. New construction now being started includes 504 dwellings being built in Szekesfehervar, the county seat. The county will soon receive 40 million forints for construction of small village dwellings, 14 million forints for building hospitals, 8½ million forints for schools, and 300,000 forints for public baths. Most of the 200-million-forint plan investment being expended in Fejer County is being used for the development of coal mines.
